Rev. & dear Dr

I got home on the 6th & found your kind note & its enclosure - I will make this letter as complete as I can & send it to you - I found a little note from my old brother Mr.
Barrow - now in Bell - enclosing a lot of his poetry - You or some one else told me of a clergyman there who is very poor & aids himself by such efforts - his friends taking them & giving him something - was it Barrow

If you should like to send him a little matter My kindest remembrance to Mr Allen.

Yours affectionately
Chas. P. M. Shaw

Rev. Dr. Allen

Rev. & dear
our letter to Nelson of received & sent. I am of the friend
perfectly so
your own
then than done —
